Final appeal in Howlett campaign

By WALTER F. STRANGE
Press-Record Staff Writer
Governor Daniel Walker and Secretary of State Michael Howlett, Democratic primary rivals, appeared here before a crowd of 1,000 Saturday and strongly urged the election of Howlett as governor in tomorrow's statewide balloting.

Howlett called Madison County "the best darned Democratic county north of the Mason-Dixon line." Walker told the gathering at the former Grant store in the Nameoki Village Shopping Center, "Those of you still on the fence, get off the fence and get on now. Get your friends off the fence, go to the polls Tuesday and elect Mike Howlett the next governor of Illinois."

work for all the people in the state. "The State of Illinois needs Mike Howlett. For the good of the country, for the good of Illinois, for the good of the people, we need to play it safe and vote straight Democratic from top to bottom," Price asserted.

Large turnout seen

By HARRY BARNES
Press-Record Staff Writer
The neck and neck race between the country's Democratic and Republican Presidential candidates and widespread interest in the campaign for election of governor of Illinois are expected to turn out a record vote in Madison County Tuesday. An estimated vote of 103,000 in tomorrow's balloting was projected today by County

County Democratic Chairman Nelson Hagnauer of Granite City in introducing Howlett said, "For 16 years, the people of Illinois have gone to the polls and elected Mike Howlett auditor and secretary of state, and there is no reason not to believe he won't make a good governor."

Howlett took the rostrum to the tune of "Happy Days Are Here Again" as the audience clapped in rhythm. Howlett opened his remarks by introducing state, county and local candidates and calling for their election. "A lot of people are believing

Court okays sewer plans

By GARY SCHNEIDER
Press-Record Staff Writer
A court memorandum upholding Madison County's authority to fund and install sanitary sewers in Nameoki, Chouteau and Venice Townships was issued Friday by Circuit Judge E. Harold Wineland of Florida, who presided over hearings on a suit seeking to block funding of the sewer project.

Judge Wineland's ruling denied each point made by those who filed the suit and instructed Harry E. Hartman, attorney for the Madison County Board's sewer committee, to prepare a court order denying an injunction in the case.

That court order is to be submitted to the judge for his signature after M. Joseph Hill, the attorney for those who filed the suit, has had an opportunity to respond to the proposed order.

Walter "Dick" Sparks, chairman of the county's special sewer committee, said he is "overjoyed" by Judge Wineland's decision.

He said it will "clear the way for the county to proceed immediately on this project, which is of such vast importance to the health and growth of this area."

Mrs. Helen Hawkins, one of those who filed the suit, said the decision is "a gross injustice and just rotten." She predicted that other residents in the area proposed for the sewers will file another suit to attempt to block it.

Judge Wineland's decision upheld the county's authority to sell general obligation bonds for the $5 million local share of the cost of the Area One sewers and to create a "special service area" in which residents will be taxed to repay the local share of the sewer cost.

Once bonds are sold, the

Abduction attempt

Granite City police are searching for a man, about 30 to 40 years of age, who displayed a knife and attempted to abduct a woman employee of Prairie Farms Dairy from the parking lot of the company's cooler at Adams Street and Niedringhaus Avenue at 2:35 p.m. Thursday.

The intended victim told police she walked from the office across Adams street toward the cooler and a car stopped beside her in the parking lot.

The driver spoke threateningly to Joyce Jones from the car, and she told him to leave. Then she walked into the large cooler building.

The car left on Adams Street and then turned right onto Niedringhaus Avenue, apparently leaving the area. She closed the cooler door and was talking to another employee in the cooler when the cooler door opened and the man walked inside.

She and the man employee with her told authorities they could see a knife with a bone-colored handle partially in the man's right hand and partially up his sleeve.

Weather outlook for this region

Sunny and warmer today with high in the low 60s. Clear tonight. Low about 40. Sunny Tuesday with high in low to mid-60s. Wednesday through Friday clear to partly cloudy and cool. Highs ranging in the 50s and lows in the upper 30s into the low 30s.

The man with the knife then asked them both two times, "Who threatened her?" and she answered "No one" both times.

The man with the knife then walked out of the cooler, returned to his car and left north on Adams Street.

The assailant was described as about 6 feet, 1 inch tall, very thin, weighing 150 pounds and having his hair combed straight back.

He wore a long-sleeved yellow shirt and yellow pants and drove an older model goldish-green Chevrolet Impala with Illinois license plates.

Police throughout the region attempted to apprehend him.

Mrs. Helen Hawkins, one of those who filed the suit, said the decision is "a gross injustice and just rotten." She predicted that other residents in the area proposed for the sewers will file another suit to attempt to block it.

Judge Wineland's decision upheld the county's authority to sell general obligation bonds for the $5 million local share of the cost of the Area One sewers and to create a "special service area" in which residents will be taxed to repay the local share of the sewer cost.

Election

winding up preparations today for tomorrow's election. Voting machines were delivered by the office late last week and during the weekend, and the last of a series of meetings in which election judges were instructed was held in Alton yesterday.

Instruction sessions were held in Highland Thursday, Wood River on Friday, in Granite City Saturday afternoon, Edwardsville Saturday night and Alton Sunday.

Miss Bowles said absentee ballots may be cast in her office until 5 p.m. today. Absentee voting by mail ended at 5 p.m. Thursday.

Predictions of a heavy vote throughout the county result partly from the close race between Democratic Presidential Candidate Jimmy Carter and President Gerald R. Ford, both of whom made appearances in St. Louis Friday.

In addition to president, vice-president, Illinois governor and lieutenant governor, voters will elect three other state officials - attorney general, secretary of state and a comptroller. They also will ballot for three trustees of the University of Illinois.

At the district level they will elect a congressman, state senator and two state representatives. County officials to be elected include clerk of the circuit court, recorder of deeds, state's attorney, coroner and auditor.

In tomorrow's election at the top of the tickets, the president and vice-presidential candidates will run together, with one vote to be cast for both. The same applies to the candidates for governor and lieutenant-governor.

Candidates on Tuesday's Democratic and Republican tickets are: President-Jimmy Carter (D), vs. Gerald Ford (R); inc. Vice-President-Walter F. Mondale (D) vs. Robert Dole (R).

Optimists study community needs, club Yule projects

Community needs and projects were discussed at the Thursday noon meeting of the Granite City Optimist club in the YMCA.

Optimist Rev. Paul Surbey, community project chairman for the club, suggested that the Salvation Army and Catholic and Protestant Charities be contacted and get names of needy boys.

After a list of names is compiled, each Optimist member would be asked to "adopt" the boy during the Christmas season and be sure the child received something nice for Christmas, in addition to perhaps taking the boy to an activity or two. It would be a program similar to the Big Brothers, but for a short period of time.

Other projects Rev. Surbey feels the club should consider are the mobile meals program for elderly and nearly-needs clothes program for children and teenagers.

Optimist John McDonald reported tentatively the joint Rotary-Optimist Camelot auction will net slightly over $7,000.

Optimist Dave Brooks reported that he had contacted the Salvation Army about ringing bells for Christmas but has not yet been advised as to the time and place.

Gene Sternberg explained an attendance contest that will be launched in two weeks. The club will be divided into two groups with a point system, prizes for the winners and penalties for the losers.

that downtown Madison will have a 100 per cent "Alpine" look in the near future. Checking the progress of the work are Robert Beckett, left, and Ray Edwards, owners and operators of Sterling TV, Fifth Street and Madison Avenue, Madison.

Laclede Steel sales increase

Laclede Steel Company's board of directors, at a regular monthly meeting last week, declared that a quarterly dividend of 25 cents per share be paid on Nov. 26, to stockholders of record on Nov. 12.

A brief unaudited statement of third quarter and nine months' operation was presented.

Third-quarter earnings of $1,177,000 are well above the operating earnings of the two earlier quarters this year, as well as those of the third quarter last year.

"You may be interested to know that $250,000 of our oil and gas exploration costs for the second quarter of this year, and the final $500,000 costs were expensed in the third quarter. We had no exploration costs in the first quarter," President Paul B. Akin, said in a report to stockholders.

"In the annual report and in my report to the stockholders last May, I mentioned why Laclede was proceeding with Texas Pacific Oil Company in drilling the second exploratory well.

"This well was drilled to a depth of 14,942 feet. As nothing was found, the well was plugged and abandoned. By participating in the second well, however, Laclede has earned a 40 per cent interest in the oil and gas leases that Texas Pacific Oil Company owns in Southern Illinois.

"These leases include rights on more than 20 other designated exploration areas, as well as any other areas in which Texas Pacific may make explorations in Southern Illinois.

"In my report to you of Sept. 19, 1975, I mentioned there had been several hydrocarbon shows in the first well and that we would reevaluate the data to decide if some additional field work should be done in that area.

"Our studies show that a shallow exploratory well is warranted and can be completed before year-end. The cost of this well to Laclede will be relatively insignificant—approximately $15,000.

"On Oct. 27, Laclede and the City of Alton, completed a $13,000,000 revenue bond issue. The proceeds of this will be used:

1. To refinance the $5,000,000 air pollution revenue bonds dated Dec. 1, 1975, and due in $500,000 installments from 1976 to 1985.
2. To finance air-water pollution control equipment, approximately $7,000,000.
3. To finance our water pollution control equipment, approximately $7,000,000.
4. To finance production equipment, approximately $1,000,000.
5. To pay costs involved in the issue.

"Sinking fund payments on the bonds will commence in 1992 and the complete issue is scheduled to be retired on Oct. 1, 2001.

"Although we expect our normal seasonal decline in earnings in the fourth quarter, we anticipate improved earnings in 1977," Pres. Akin concluded.

For the third quarter ended Sept. 30, Laclede Steel had $21,218,000 net sales, compared to $44,710,000 in the 1975 third quarter.

Net earnings were $1,177,000 or 71 cents a share, compared to $358,000 or 28 cents.

For the nine months ending in September 1976, net sales were $143,952,000, compared to $136,448,000, and net earnings were $2,973,000 or $6.80 a share compared to $3,543,000 or $2.15 a share in January-September 1975.

Elks clinic for handicapped children planned here Nov. 10

The Granite City Elks Lodge, in cooperation with the Illinois Elks Association Physically Handicapped Children's Commission, will sponsor a free diagnostic clinic for physically handicapped children on Nov. 10, from noon until 3 p.m.

Daryl Schmissauer, chairman of the local Elks Lodge committee, said that the clinic will be held at the Elks Club and the general public is invited to participate. An orthopedic surgeon from the University of Illinois Hospital in Chicago will be the clinician in charge.

Children with orthopedic problems, including those who have been examined at previous clinics and those physically handicapped in any way, are invited to attend for evaluation. Children from newborn to 21 years of age are welcome. They should be accompanied by a parent or guardian.

Family physicians are invited to send patients they feel might benefit from this service as well as patients that are needing physical therapy. School nurses are urged to refer any handicapped child they might have contact with in their area.

All Elks with children should especially take advantage of this clinic even though there seems to be no problem.

The Elks of Illinois are sponsoring clinics in 62 lodge areas with 90 clinics being held this year, such clinics having been started 48 years ago. They have provided medical care, operations, hospital care, prosthesis and physical therapy during most of this period.

There is no charge for services rendered at this clinic.

The Madison County Zoning Board of Appeals has recommended that a special use permit be granted to James Haynes, owner, and Onie Lee Graham, mobile home occupant, to place a mobile home at Allen and Harrison streets in Eagle Park Acres, an R-4 single-family residential district of Venice Township.

The board recommends the permit be granted only for the occupancy of Onie Lee Graham for the duration of her lifetime, or as long as the need for the mobile home exists, whichever comes first. The recommendation will be considered by the Madison County Board during its November meeting.

Roof repairs start on park buildings

Emergency repairs to the roof of the Wilson Park office building, costing $500, will be made by Vavrock Roofers, Inc. of Belleville, while the firm is installing a new roof at the Nameki Recreation Center, Ames and Franklin avenues, the Granite City Board of Park Commissioners decided last week.

Meeting in regular session, the board members reviewed contracts approved at a recessed meeting for installation of the recreation center roof, awarded to the Vavrock firm on a low bid of $3,680, and replacement of the roof on the swimming pool bathhouse by the Rogers Co. of Granite City, who submitted a low bid of $4,150.

Purchase of a 1976 Plymouth Fury four-door sedan for use of the park superintendent, also was authorized at the earlier session to Granite City Chrysler-Plymouth agency, whose bid of $4,557 was the lowest of three received.

Barry Loman, park board vice-president, conducted the business session and announced the board's Nov. 24 meeting will start at 6:30 p.m. due to the Thanksgiving Eve date.

A special visitor introduced was Morris Collier, a student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Madison senior citizens become Crime Blockers

The city of Madison added to its growing list of trained Crime Blockers as 57 senior citizens took a two-hour orientation course Thursday afternoon.

The course was presented in the Madison Recreation Center, Seventh and Lee streets, Madison. Chief of Police Frank Duko, Officer Glenn Wright of the Madison City Police Department, who is coordinating the program in the Quad-Cities, and John Richard Hooks, counselor of the Madison Coordinating Youth Services program, presented the program.

Chief Duko explained the value of the program in calling attention to four teenagers, members of Police Explorer Post 10-4, who last week foiled a burglary and two suspects were apprehended as a result of their being alert and knowing how to report a suspected crime.

"Everyone has a responsibility to help curb crime," Duko said. "We only have a limited number of policemen and they can not be everywhere at once. We need people to report to us when they see something that they feel is just not right in their neighborhood."

"If a call is properly reported, as in the case with the young Explorers, the chances are far greater of the subject being caught than an improper call. The crime blocker program teaches a person how to report a suspected crime properly, which will help the police do a better job."

"Far too often we get a phone call and the caller says something like 'they, them a bunch of kids fooling around the corner of', gives the address and hangs up."

"Or they will call the next morning and tell the police they saw something the night before. Police can not act an hour or two after the fact or with poor information. If everyone would report a crime or suspected crime like the Explorers did, we would put a stop to a lot of home burglaries," Duko said.

Duko emphasized that to have a really active police force the people have to support their police officers.

Duko then introduced Officer Wright and Hooks who explained how to report a suspected crime and presented a film on home burglaries.

November is Crime Blocker month. The program is being sponsored by the Madison-Joliet Rotary Club and the Granite City Rotary Club.

Gateway urges U.S. funds for county jail

Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the Madison County Board of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council board of directors, has announced that Gateway last week endorsed two projects for Madison County, including jail funding.

Hagnauer noted that the projects, if approved by appropriate agencies, would result in over $6 billion in federal funds for this county.

The first project calls for improvements to Civic Memorial Airport in East Alton — widening and strengthening runway 11-29 and its parallel taxiways, installing high intensity runway lights, and acquiring additional land.

The second project requests funds to aid in construction of a new Madison County jail to be located west of Madison County Courthouse in downtown Edwardsville.

The project involves, in addition to actual construction of the jail, necessary site preparation work, including demolition of existing abandoned buildings, construction of necessary access roads and installation of utilities.

The present Madison County Jail was built in 1886, is limited in size and is in poor condition. An average of 16 prisoners per day is being housed in other county jails.

Taverns may open Tuesday

Taverns throughout the Quad-City area will be allowed to be open for business tomorrow, which is election day. Liquor stores and restaurants serving liquor also may open.

Madison County State's Attorney Nicholas G. Byrne has issued a legal opinion to Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the Madison County Board and the liquor control commissioner for the county, that the question of whether taverns will be allowed to open election day is a decision which must be made by each liquor control commissioner.

Hagnauer announced all of the taverns in unincorporated areas of the county may open election day.

Friday, Mayor Mike Gayek of Madison and Mayor William "Mike" Ebersoldt of Venice, acting as liquor commissioner for their cities, announced taverns may be open there on Tuesday.

Mayor Paul Schuler of Granite City commented Friday that the city, by ordinance, has approved taverns, restaurants serving liquor and liquor stores being open on all election days.

There had been a question whether federal law could mandate taverns be closed on election day during a national presidential election, which was resolved here by Byron's opinion.

BREAK INTO APARTMENT

The glass in the rear door was broken to gain entry to the apartment of Joseph Gann, 1029 Twenty-third St. It was discovered at 2:05 p.m. Thursday. Nothing is known missing.

'College Night' Thursday for high school students

Granite City High School South will host College Night on Thursday for students of North and South high schools and their parents.

After a short musical program in the auditorium featuring both high schools, parents and students may choose the college programs of their choice and attend half-hour programs with at least three college representatives.

Over 40 per cent of the local high school graduates enter programs of higher education, and admissions officers of public and private colleges in the area attend College Night to inform students and parents of their programs. Among those to be represented this year are:

Programs are available in a wide variety of technical areas as well as programs leading to transfer to degree programs in four-year colleges. Some courses of Belleville Area College are offered in an evening program at South High School. John Ryan, counselor, will represent Belleville.

Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, attracts many local students in evening programs as well as in day-time classes. A wide variety of professional and pre-professional programs are offered at SIUE. George Woods, admissions counselor, will represent the university.

Equal rights still in future, BPW told

Pay differentials based on sex are even greater, than those based on race or national origin," Senator Cecil A. Partridge, president of the Illinois Senate, told a group of 250 persons gathered last week at Trinity Hall in Madison.

"Because you are women and for that reason alone, your unemployment rate is higher and you tend to be clustered in a few occupations. More than one-third of the working women are in seven occupations — secretarial, sales, general household, teaching, bookkeeping, food service and nursing," the legislator said.

Sen. Partridge, the Democratic candidate for Illinois attorney general in Tuesday's general election, was the principal speaker at the annual "Legislative Night" dinner, sponsored by the Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club.

Many area legislators, candidates for state office are civic officials attended the affair.

Attorney Leo Koenig served as master of ceremonies and invited any candidate present to address the assembled guests for a two-minute period following Sen. Partridge's remarks.

Mrs. Rosalie Portell, dinner chairman, was assisted by Mrs. Edna Kohlbrecher, Mrs. Ennyale Ahr and Mrs. Helen Christich.

Mrs. Louise Lewis, a BPW member, entertained the group with the ERA song, "200 Years," which was introduced for the first time in July at the national BPW convention in Denver, Colo. She was accompanied by Mrs. Valerie Stevens at the piano.

Greetings were extended by Mrs. Rosemary Hardwick, BPW District 14 chairman, and Sylvia Wright, president of the Granite City club, welcomed the members and guests.

Concerning women's role in today's working force, Sen. Partridge examined the issue critically, noting "the wide disparity in wages paid to men and women."

He said the President's Council of Economic Advisors estimates "there is an earning differential of 20 per cent between men and women that can be definitely attributed to sex discrimination."

"When a woman goes to work today, she is doing nothing unusual. There are more than 33 million working women, but many of you still suffer all forms of discrimination."

"Generally speaking, you get less pay than men for the same type of work. You get less promotional opportunities, you get laid off more often and you still find it harder to break into higher paying jobs."

Sen. Partridge continued, "Working women live with these realities despite the fact that nearly two-thirds of you are providing essential incomes for your families — and without that income these families would sink below the poverty level as defined by the U.S. Department of Labor."

"Over half of you are employed in jobs where 70 per cent of the work force or higher is composed of females," Sen. Partridge said.

"Such concentration, of course, makes it easy for employers to lower pay scales, since there is an 'overabundance' of available workers. Naturally, this too fosters higher unemployment."

Relating to the woman's role in government and legislative activities, the Illinois Senate president said the progress women have made in recent years in elective politics is "remarkable and marvelous."

Just two years ago, Ella Grasso was elected governor of Connecticut, leading a long list of gains which women made in state-level balloting, including an estimated 70 per cent increase in state legislative seats.

"Women also in 1974 gained a new seat in Congress, a lieutenant governorship and a big city mayorship," Sen. Partridge stated. "But the key gains were in state legislatures from 470 up to the new figure of 750."

A net gain of three was registered in Illinois. In the Illinois Senate, there were no female senators for many years. Then, along came Esther Saperstein of Chicago and, before she had retired, Dawn Clarks Netsch, the late Betty Keegan and her replacement from the Rockford area, Vivian Brown.

"Democrats have this year an excellent woman, Carol Keitan, running for senator in the Bloomington area," Sen. Partridge said. He noted that Mrs. Keitan is the mayor of Normal and said she has a "great chance of unseating the incumbent."

"In other words, women have been proving they can be good candidates. That's how they did it. And they've been proving they can be good elected public officials. That's how they continue to get re-elected. They must be satisfying their constituents in the electorate."

"There should be some 20 women in the Illinois House and Senate after the election, compared to the 14 now. Still, there is a very real ceiling of the 236 total lawmakers, so I don't want to paint too rosy or optimistic a picture. Facts are facts, but see progress, slow as it is, every election year."

The Democratic candidate for attorney general said that the strides women are making in other areas, including professional and school athletics, in executive level positions and in lobbying jobs.

"Personally, I favor adoption of the proposed Equal Rights Amendment (ERA) to the U.S. Constitution. There are many pros and cons on ERA."

Church Women United luncheon

The executive board of Church Women United in the Granite City area entertained its representatives from the various area churches last week at a luncheon at Central Christian Church.

According to the co-chairmen, Judy Russell and Ellen Wilson, the luncheon serve a two-fold purpose: to inform the churches through their representatives of the activities and needs of Church Women United, and to show appreciation to the representatives for their continuing support throughout the year.

Special guests were Officer Glenn Wright of the Granite City Police Department who spoke briefly on the new Crime Blocker program, and Steve Missey, Emergency Medical Services coordinator for the state of Illinois.

Missey, who is affiliated with the trauma center at St. Elizabeth Hospital here, also represents the Illinois Heart Association in this area. He described the association's program for teaching cardiac pulmonary resuscitation, commonly referred to as CPR.

The guest stressed the need for lay persons to be familiar with the standard procedures involved when a friend, relative, or bystander is stricken with a heart attack, or is choking.

"Many more lives would be saved if those in the immediate vicinity of a heart attack or choking victim were schooled in the proper techniques of resuscitation," Missey stated.

Instruction also is given in recognizing the heart attack or choking syndromes, so the proper course of action can be taken.

Missey offers lay persons a four hour course of instruction in these areas. Church Women United agreed to sponsor one on Nov. 30 at 6 p.m. at St. Elizabeth Hospital, starting at 6 p.m. The course is open to the public free of charge.

Margaret Pennell, president, announced that Officer Wright will present a program on Nov. 11 at 12:30 p.m.

The issue is an emotional one, an issue that has received tremendous publicity in the last four or five years.

"I won't bother to get into all of that, but I do feel its passage would provide the clear constitutional backing for sexual equality."

"Opponents of ERA — besides using the 'fear' argument about common bathrooms and females on the battlefield — maintain that women can achieve equality on a piecemeal basis through passage of legislation."

"Perhaps this is true. But it takes longer and, in my opinion, it is not as thorough and complete."

"In the last couple of years here in Illinois, for instance, the legislature has passed and the governor has signed a dozen or so pieces of legislation ending discrimination against women in areas such as credit card usage and public employment."

"But this, in my view, is a haphazard approach. One state may be progressive, but what is another state doing to its heels? Are the women in that state less worthy?" Sen. Partridge asked.

He said he will continue to give his warm support to the passage of ERA, although commenting that he no longer will be in the Illinois Senate but serving as attorney general following Tuesday's election.

p.m. at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

Quintessence of the program is to recruit and train citizens to be alert and report to the police any unusual happenings which might indicate a crime, particularly a house burglary, is in progress in their neighborhoods.

The program also is open to the public free of charge, and Church Women United will provide child care services for the afternoon.

Brief reports were given by: Delores Vageler, Friends in Learning; Nan Henderson, Nearly New Clothing Center; Dee Roberts, CROP-Church World Service; Ruth Todd, treasurer; and Helen Baran, blood chairman.

Virginia Rickert and Mrs. Roberts presented Ellen Elbert, Layette chairman, with infant items received at a baby shower for the Layette project given by the United Presbyterian Women of the First United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Louis Orr is president of the women's group.

The luncheon was closed with a prayer led by Sharon Rush.

IT'S A MATTER OF LIFE

QUESTION: The people in the Right to Life movement ask us to vote only for candidates who support the Human Life Amendment. The legislator in my district is not in favor of the Human Life Amendment, but agree with him on almost every other issue. Is it right to vote against him on "only one issue?"

ANSWER: Yes, it is. The Human Life Amendment is a key issue. If we truly believe that abortion takes millions of lives, no candidate who allows this destruction should receive our vote.

LET'S IMAGINE: Let's imagine we're back in the 19th Century — our legislator, while taking wonderful stands on everything else, believes slavery should not be prohibited. He states, "Whatever whites and blacks are equal in a decision that everyone should make for himself. We should not impose our personal morality on those who see nothing wrong with slavery." Would not such a legislator lose our support?

DON'T BE FOOLED: The ONLY CRITERIA for judging a candidate's stand on the abortion issue is whether or not he supports the Human Life Amendment.

A candidate who says he is "personally opposed to abortion" but doesn't support the Human Life Amendment must be prepared to say, "I think that it is civilized and appropriate for a society to permit the killing of innocent and defenseless human beings, as long as the killing is done by a doctor with the consent of the victim's mother." No reasonable person of good will can honestly make that statement.

WE — THE VOTERS: We must stand firmly consistent and cast our vote only for those candidates who clearly and firmly declare themselves defenders of the Right to Life of all people. We must pledge ourselves to the promotion of a constitutional amendment which will establish this right clearly and without equivocation. No Christian, with good conscience, may vote for any man or woman who is willing to compromise issues which are contrary to the laws of God.

IN SUMMARY: A disqualifying issue is one which cannot be compromised, especially if the issue strikes at the heart of our Judeo-Christian value system. Abortion is that kind of issue.

The success of the pro-life effort depends upon this key political question — are we really committed and do we regard support of abortion as a disqualifying issue? If we do, then a Human Life Amendment will be well within our strength.

More comments by the nominees on campaign issues

have succeeded largely in changing the building of strategic arms for a "quantitative" to a "qualitative" arms race.

It is time, in the SALT talks, that we complete the stage of agreeing on ceilings and get down to the central part of SALT—the actual negotiation of reductions in strategic forces and measures effectively halting the race in strategic weapons technology.

"The longer effective arms reduction is postponed, the more likely it is that other nations will be encouraged to develop their own nuclear capability."

Jimmy Carter

Additional viewpoints by Jimmy Carter, Democratic President nominee, on issues discussed during this year's election campaign:

EMPLOYMENT

"I think the major priority of the next administration has got to be employment. My own belief is that we can get the adult unemployment rate down to 4 per cent or the overall rate down to 3.5 per cent without any adverse effect on inflation."

"I believe that anyone who is able to work ought to be able to work and ought to have a chance to work. Any system of economics is bankrupt if it sees either value or virtue in unemployment."

"We simply cannot check inflation by keeping people out of work."

"Of the major thrust ought to be the strengthening of the private sector, not guaranteeing everybody they will get a job from the federal government."

"To reach full employment, we must assure:

1. "Support for the Full Employment Act of 1976.

2. "Counter-cyclical assistance to cities with high unemployment.

3. "An expansionary fiscal and monetary policy during the coming fiscal year to stimulate demand, production and jobs.

4. "Stimulation and incentives for the private sector to hire the unemployed and to retain workers already employed during periods of economic downturn."

"I provide an additional incentive, the unemployment compensation tax paid by the employers should be provided for businesses and other persons previously unemployed."

"An increased commitment by the federal government to fund the cost of on-the-job training by business."

6. "More efficient employment to match people to jobs."

"Improved manpower training programs."

8. "Creation of meaningful and productive public needs jobs as a supplement to the private sector, including jobs for unmet needs in areas such as housing rehabilitation and repairing our railroad roadbeds."

NATIONAL SECURITY

"Under the Nixon-Ford administration, there has evolved a kind of secretive 'Lone Ranger' foreign policy—a one-man policy of international adventure."

"A foreign policy based on secrecy is inherently bad, is closely guarded and amoral, and we have had to forego openness, consultation, and constant adherence to fundamental principles and high moral standards."

"Secretaries of State and Defense should regularly appear before Congress, hopefully in televised sessions, to answer hard questions and to give straight answers."

"In every foreign venture that has failed—whether it was Vietnam, Cambodia, Chile or Angola, or in the excesses of the CIA—our government forgot ahead without consulting the American people and did things that were contrary to our basic character."

"A stable world order cannot become a reality without the many nations of the world suffer mass starvation or when there are no concerted arrangements to deal with population growth, energy, or environmental quality."

"The time has come for us to seek a working partnership between North America, Western Europe and Japan."

"Our three regions share economic, political and security concerns that make it logical that we should seek ever-increasing unity and understanding."

"Carter calls for a re-ordering of foreign policy priorities: high-level unilateral negotiations with concerned powers must take second place to re-establishing close working relationships with democratic allies."

ARMS CONTROL

"Referring to the SALT negotiations, Carter said: 'Unfortunately, the agreements reached to date

"The United States should—'First, we should continue to put its peaceful nuclear facilities under international safeguards to demonstrate that we are prepared to accept the same arrangements as the non-weapon states."

"Call on all nations of the world to adopt a voluntary moratorium on the national production of nuclear enrichment or processing plants."

"Give the most serious consideration to the elimination of centralized multinational enrichment facilities involving developing countries' investment participation and;

"In cooperation with other countries, assure the developing nations of an adequate supply of enriched uranium to eliminate their need for processing plants."

PUBLIC JOBS

"To supplement our effort to have private industry play a greater role, the federal government has an obligation to provide for the creation of productive public employment of those whom private business cannot or will not hire."

"Provide 8,000 summer youth jobs."

"Pass an accelerated public works program targeted to areas of specific national need."

"Double the CETA (Comprehensive Educational Training Act) from 300,000 to 600,000 jobs, and provide counter-cyclical aid to cities with high unemployment."

"You recently endorsed the Humphrey-Hawkins full employment bill. Why did you wait so long?"

"I didn't approve of it the way it was originally written. We had a fundamental flaw in the unemployment goal of 3 per cent, taking in all age groups, most of my economic advisers thought that would mean double-digit inflation."

"And although in its original form the bill would have placed the government as the employer of last resort, in effect it placed the government almost as an employer of first resort."

"As a last resort, public employment jobs need to be created similar to the WPA during the depression years, particularly for young Americans, who are currently extremely high unemployment rate—in excess of 40 per cent for the young people."

"The programs I have proposed will be repaid by increased tax revenues generated by the full employment from the jobs programs I have outlined."

"I believe the future of America is directly dependent upon the good health and welfare of our nation's cities. Our cities and metropolitan areas are the main staff of life for the majority of Americans."

"The essential building block of our urban policy must be the provision of a job for each person capable of holding gainful employment."

"The welfare burden should be removed from a city such as New York City with all welfare costs being paid by the federal and state governments."

"Carter proposed: $2 billion in counter-cyclical assistance, 5-year extension of revenue sharing and metropolitan area compensation for inflation, and studying the creation of a federal Municipalities Securities Insurance Corporation to assist localities in their borrowing."

"To help solve the physical problems confronting the cities, Carter pledges 'to fulfill our national commitment to build 2½ million housing units per year.'"

"Carter would bolster the urban transportation system by 'substantially increasing the amount of money available for the Highway Trust Fund for public mass transportation' and permitting localities to use greater amounts of their federal mass transit funds as operating subsidies."

LAND USE AND GROWTH

"Carter proposes 'extension of the Revenue Sharing program for five years, with an increase in the annual funding level to $1.5 billion, and with enforcement of the civil rights provisions of the bill to guarantee a gain in the distribution of the funds."

"I will study whether the revenue sharing formula should be amended in the future to place greater emphasis on areas of high need."

"I believe that all revenue sharing funds should go to the cities and the localities should be allowed to use these funds for defraying the costs of health, social services and education, which they are currently forced to do."

TAXES

"I am considering a drastic simplification of the income tax system that would lower taxes on middle and low income families."

"I believe that you would eliminate hundreds of tax breaks and greatly reduce the tax rate. A recent study says that plan would allow a reduction of up to 40 per cent in the tax rate."

"Unless we conserve energy drastically, make a major shift to solar and substantially increase our use of solar energy, we will have no alternative to dependence on foreign oil."

"As one who is intimately familiar with the problems and potential of nuclear energy, I believe we must keep dependence to a minimum."

"During the past few years, two-thirds of all federal research and development funds went for atomic power, primarily for the Liquid Metal Fast Breeder Reactor."

"Because of the mounting costs and environmental problems our emphasis on the project should be severely reduced and converted to a long-term possibly multinational energy dependence on nuclear power."

DOMESTIC MONETARY POLICY

"A naive doctrinaire view that is to be avoided is that inflation is purely a consequence of excessive expansion of the money supply and that the only way to deal with it, once it has occurred is to restrict the money supply, come what may to interest rates, employment and production."

"The policy of monetary restriction to slow down the economy was not a sensible way to counteract the price rises that occurred."

"There was an unnecessary pressure put on the housing market through the drying up of mortgage funds, a general curbing of the American consumer, a setback to industrial capital formation."

"Carter favors 'better coordination between fiscal and monetary policy and has offered suggestions such as: 'The Federal Reserve Board should have the power to appoint the chairman of the Federal Reserve for a term commensurate with the administration of the President.'"

"Requiring the 'Open Market Committee of the Federal Reserve Board to state its objectives more clearly and publicly.'"

GOVERNMENT SPENDING

"I think that a strong emphasis toward comprehensive planning between federal and state governments is needed. Prepared budgets can reduce large deficits and therefore the need to redistribute to control inflation."

"We need to institute zero-based budgeting, wherein we start with a clean budget each year and start from scratch, and require every program that spends the taxpayer's money to justify itself annually."

"I favor balanced budgets over the business cycle. If the economy is managed progressively, we can attain a balanced budget with full employment by 1979—before the end of the first term of my Administration."

"Putting people to work, don't forget to enlarge the amount of taxes the government collects and reduce what it spends to fight unemployment."

MILITARY SPENDING

"Without endangering the defense of our nation or our commitments to our allies, we can reduce present defense expenditures by $5 to $7 billion annually."

"Carter indicated that the savings could be achieved by being 'hard-headed in the development of new weapons systems' and by cutting unnecessary upper-echelon and more streamlined command structure."

"But I can't give you at this point a list of industries for the year or the following year's defense budget."

"The CIA must operate within the law. It is a service to allow foreign policy to be based on more complete information. The function of the intelligence agency should be to provide this service, not to overthrow governments and make foreign policy unilaterally or in secret."

given by the states that these plans will be implemented and will protect critical environmental areas."

NUCLEAR ENVIRONMENTAL SAFETY

"We must maintain the strictest possible safety. Nuclear reactors should be located below ground level."

"Power plants should be housed in sealed buildings within which heavy vacuum are permanently maintained. Plants should be located in sparsely populated areas but only after consultation with state and local officials."

"Designs should be standardized. A full-time federal employee with full authority to shut down the plant in case of any operational abnormality should always be present in control rooms."

"Unless we conserve energy drastically, make a major shift to solar and substantially increase our use of solar energy, we will have no alternative to dependence on foreign oil."

"As one who is intimately familiar with the problems and potential of nuclear energy, I believe we must keep dependence to a minimum."

"During the past few years, two-thirds of all federal research and development funds went for atomic power, primarily for the Liquid Metal Fast Breeder Reactor."

"The CIA must operate within the law. It is a service to allow foreign policy to be based on more complete information. The function of the intelligence agency should be to provide this service, not to overthrow governments and make foreign policy unilaterally or in secret."

Following are additional comments by President Gerald R. Ford, Republican, on issues arising during the campaign leading up to tomorrow's general election:

EMPLOYMENT

"The best and most effective way to create new jobs is to pursue balanced economic growth that encourage the growth of the private sector without risking a new round of inflation."

"This is the core of my economic policy, and I believe that the steady improvements in the economy over the last half on both the unemployment and inflation fronts bear witness to its essential wisdom."

"I intend to continue this basic approach because it is working for research and development."

"My proposed economic policies are expected to produce lasting, productive jobs, not temporary jobs for by the American taxpayer."

"This is a policy of balance, realism, and common sense. It is a sound policy which provides long term benefits and does not promise more than it can deliver."

"President Ford is not going to be satisfied until everybody has a job who wants a job. That is the only criterion by which this administration will judge whether we are going well or badly."

"Everyone who wants a job has in a job under this administration. We are not going to get the unemployed back to work overnight."

"But it will get them back to work by the end of the year. Jobs—not dead-end jobs supported by the government."

"One cannot compromise full employment overnight. I hope nobody does because it is a cruel illusion."

NATIONAL SECURITY

"In our Constitutional system, the President has the right of consultation and accommodation between the President and Congress."

"But in the final analysis, as the framers of our Constitution knew from hard experience, the President alone must make the decisions and take the responsibility of action."

"That responsibility clearly rests with the President. I pledge to all Americans that the policies which seek a secure, just and peaceful world."

"I will keep our powder dry and share some of the costs."

"We must work together to limit the flow of arms into the developing world. We must have a clear example of our nation's role in the world's leading arms salesman."

"The Humphrey-Hawkins bill would decrease that flow of arms, and to reduce the commerce in weapons of war."

ARMED INTERVENTION AND COVERT ACTIONS

"Democratic processes may in some countries bring to power parties or leaders whose ideologies are not shared by most Americans."

"We may not welcome these changes. We will certainly not encourage them."

"But we must respect the results of democratic elections and the right of countries to make their own free choice if we are to remain faithful to our own ideals."

"We must learn to live with diversity and American commitment to cooperate, so long as such political parties respect the democratic process, uphold existing international commitments, and are not subservient to external political pressures."

"We have learned that never again should our country become militarily involved in the internal affairs of another nation unless there is a direct and obvious threat to the security of the United States or its people."

"The CIA must operate within the law. It is a service to allow foreign policy to be based on more complete information. The function of the intelligence agency should be to provide this service, not to overthrow governments and make foreign policy unilaterally or in secret."

not put our finger on the nuclear trigger."

"Today, the state of our foreign policy is sound and strong."

"We are at peace and I will do all in my power to keep it that way."

"Our military forces are capable of meeting any military power is without equal. And I intend to keep it that way."

"Our principal alliances with the industrial democracies of the Atlantic Community and Japan, have never been more solid."

"A further agreement to limit the strategic arms race may be achieved."

"We have an improving relationship with China, the world's most populous nation."

"The key elements for peace among the nations of the Middle East now exist."

ARMS CONTROL

"Asked if he thought the American people needed much more than the SALT talks, he said he was convinced the American people want their own voice in connection with the programs."

REVENUE SHARING

"This program has been effective with decision-making transferred from the federal government to locally elected officials."

"In the four years since the revenue sharing program began, state and local governments have proved beyond any doubt whatsoever the merit of their control over local concerns."

"It is just too important to your cities; it is just too important to your states; it is just too important to the United States of America."

"A major objective should be to simplify the tax system as well as make the more equitable."

"My administration's objectives are threefold—greater equity, greater simplification and lower taxes."

"My program also includes $10 billion of further tax reductions. Benefits are directed toward middle and lower income taxpayers and incentives for creation of new jobs by business."

"These cuts will be linked to comparable cuts in federal spending."

"It is clear that the federal tax law must be reformed in the interests of achieving greater fairness among taxpayers."

"I have submitted legislation to that end—legislation that will require high income taxpayers to pay a reasonable tax, that would restrict the use of artificial accounting devices to tax shelters, and would gradually reduce the double taxation on corporate dividends."

"I recognize there is merit in the argument that some areas of the country are suffering from exceptionally high rates of unemployment, and that the federal government should provide assistance."

"Fiscal budgets for fiscal years 1976 and 1977 do, in fact, seek to provide such assistance."

"Some senators and some congressmen seem to think they can abolish unemployment by passing new laws such as the Humphrey-Hawkins bill now pending in Congress."

"The bill is a classic example of the way the misguided majority in recent Congresses tried to apply discredited remedies to economic problems."

"The Humphrey-Hawkins bill would decrease that flow of arms, and to reduce the commerce in weapons of war."

"The Humphrey-Hawkins bill would decrease that flow of arms, and to reduce the commerce in weapons of war."

AID TO CITIES

"There are two very important programs."

"Name one. I would like to see that Congress passes what is called revenue sharing, which would give federal money to local governments and to the states to help those cities and states enforce their laws."

"I decided to ask Congress for $10 billion for revenue sharing."

authority to provide a temporary line of credit to the State of New York to enable it to supply seasonal financing of essential services for the people of New York City."

"There is no cost to the rest of the taxpayers of the United States. New York of course must continue to accept primary responsibility. If local parties fail to carry out their plan, I am prepared to stop even the seasonal federal assistance."

With Ford's backing, Congress cleared legislation authorizing a $2.3 billion federal loan program for the city."

Ford has appointed a 13-member committee that includes eight Cabinet members to study the problem of the cities."

HUD Secretary Carla Hills said the committee had been directed by Ford to review all major federal programs that had impact on cities and neighborhoods, and to recommend changes that would allow local communities to make their own decisions in connection with the programs."

ENVIRONMENTAL COSTS

"If accomplishing every worthy environmental objective would slow down our effort to maintain energy independence and a stronger economy, then of necessity I must weigh all factors involved."

"We must improve our understanding of the effects of clean and safe nuclear power and costs of reducing pollution."

"As we develop new energy sources and technologies we must assure that they meet environmental standards."

"Ford's 1977 budget would cut appropriations for the Environmental Protection Agency to $718 million—$33 million less than Congress appropriated for 1976 and $2 million less than requested in the 1976 budget."

LAND USE AND GROWTH

Concerning federal legislation in the area of land use, Ford said, "I am opposed to it, period."

"I think the state and local units of government can make better decisions on land use than the federal government can."

NUCLEAR ENVIRONMENTAL EFFECTS

Ford proposes to "expedite cleanup and safe nuclear power production" as part of the energy independence program.

"The President Ford Committee has found that the energy independence program."

"President Ford is committed to finding new sources of energy and to ensuring that nuclear power must be developed rapidly."

"Ford's 1977 budget, ERDA's outlays will increase by 30 per cent."

ERDA will spend $24 million extending its three uranium enrichment plants and $117 million developing safer and more ways to dispose of nuclear fuel and bury atomic wastes."

DOMESTIC MONETARY POLICY

"I don't think it is fair to put all of the burden in the battle against inflation on the shoulders of the Federal Reserve Board."

"I have repeatedly indicated that I believe that policy is as important as monetary policy in the battle against inflation."

GOVERNMENT SPENDING

"The Government must stop spending so much money borrowing so much of our money; more money must remain in private hands where it will do the most good."

"To hold down the cost of living, we must hold down the cost of government."

"The majority in Congress believe higher federal spending on a host of social programs will stimulate a more rapid recovery and that the government should provide jobs for everybody if private employers don't do so fast enough."

"I believe that the best way to have the best economy is a new round of higher and higher inflation."

"They believe that bigger federal deficits are required to keep the economy under way."

MILITARY SPENDING

"We will provide the national defense it now appears we need. We dare not do less. And if our efforts to reduce international arms limitations falter, we will need to do more."

"The country is second to none in the capability that is required to protect our country. We do have the best trained, the best equipped, the best most alert military force in the history of the United States."

Ford said the U.S. had a declining capability in defense policy for 1976-1977. Those under $10 billion in defense spending a lesser and lesser amount in real dollars. I think

Congress that they go from $60,000 to $150,000 and they must do that when a piece of property—whether it is a family farm or a family business—goes from the husband to the wife or from the wife to the husband there is no federal estate tax that has to be paid."

ALTERNATE ENERGY SOURCES

"Goal must be used in connection with the energy sources, expensive or insecure oil and natural gas supplies."

"We must act to remove unnecessary constraints on coal so that production can grow from the 1975 level of 640 million tons to over one billion tons by 1985 in order to help achieve energy independence."

"We have to make some realistic appraisals and adjustments in how we use our coal more effectively and more efficiently."

"We have to spend research and development money on energy independence on geothermal energy and some of the other exotic fuels."

the time has come that we must reverse that trend."

Ford said he submitted a "record peacetime defense budget request of $112.7 billion" that represented an increase in real dollars of $7.4 billion.

"That will improve the strength and readiness of the armed services while trimming off all the fat that we can."

"Work will continue on the Trident submarine, the B-1 strategic bomber, cruise missiles and ballistic missiles."

"I firmly believe that grant military assistance in some form will remain a basic requirement for an effective U.S. foreign policy for the foreseeable future."

He opposes "an arbitrary termination date" for such assistance.

In a supplemental appropriation request to Congress, Ford asked for $322.4 million to continue production of Minuteman III missile on an optional basis, and to produce improved nuclear warheads and build supporting facilities.

This reversed a tentative decision in the January defense budget to halt production of Minuteman III. The turnaround was ascribed by the White House to lack of progress at the SALT talks.

Defense Secretary Rumsfeld asked Congress to increase Navy shipbuilding funds by $974 million to $2.3 billion, so that the U.S. could retain its naval superiority over Russia through the year 2000.

President Ford vetoed the $4.4 billion foreign aid bill citing constitutional problems and "unwise restrictions" on his ability to make foreign policy.

Restrictions he objected to included: a $9 billion ceiling on military sales, which he said limits U.S. ability to help our friends and "obstructs U.S. industry from competing fairly with foreign suppliers"; a legislated end to military grants and military advisory teams in two years; and Congressional review and veto power over major arms sales.

ARMED INTERVENTION AND COVERT ACTIONS

Ford asked Congress for legislation authorizing electronic surveillance in the U.S. for foreign intelligence purposes upon a judicial warrant, and the opening of U.S. mail sent to or from suspected foreign agents engaged in spying, sabotage or terrorism, if a federal judge consents.

Ford also asked Congress to make it a crime to plan or carry out an assassination of a foreign official in peacetime.

Ford's Executive Order on Intelligence Activities prohibits physical surveillance of U.S. citizens and resident aliens except for specified exceptions; prohibits the CIA from performing electronic surveillance within the U.S. and says other agencies must operate within procedures approved by the Attorney General; prohibits infiltration within the U.S. of organizations except those composed primarily of foreigners believed to be acting for a foreign power; and specifies the conditions under which information on domestic activities of U.S. persons could be collected.

More than 1,000 educators from the St. Louis area and the southwestern region of Illinois are expected to converge upon the campus of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville Saturday Nov. 20 for the twelfth annual reading conference.

Sponsored by the SIUE School of Education, the conference has scheduled a day of informational sessions that deal with the primary grades, intermediate grades, and education at the secondary level.

Participants will also have a chance to hear a lecture from one of the world's foremost educators in the field of reading.

The one-day conference will commence with registration in the University Center at 8 a.m. Registration will be $3. Reading materials available for the classroom will be on display in the Center.

Keynote speaker for the conference will be Emerald Dechant, professor of education at Fort Hays State College in Kansas. A national and international authority in the teaching of reading, Dechant will speak on the topic, "The Nature of the Reading Process—Diagnosis and Remediation."

He is the author of several books on the psychology of teaching people to read. Dechant's books have been adopted as textbooks by colleges in the United States, Canada, England, New Zealand, Australia, Hawaii, Philippines and Southeast Asia.

The educator has written many articles and travels all over the country to serve as a lecturer, panelist and consultant for workshops, institutes and conventions. He is president-elect of the Kansas International Reading Association.

Additional information on the conference may be obtained by contacting David Bear, chairman of the department of elementary education in the SIUE School of Education.

Driver training aiding the aged

The senior citizens driver training program, introduced by Secretary of State Michael J. Howlett early in 1975, continues to show positive results, he said Friday.

In June 1976, only 17 per cent of drivers 69 and over taking required vision, written and road tests for license renewal failed to qualify. Statistics of December 1974 show that 32 per cent of drivers in this category did not pass.

"I have been encouraged on the progress of the program, and a recent sampling of a test group of 60 and over who had taken the review course resulted in 95 per cent qualifying on the first examination," Howlett said.

The review course is directed by volunteer instructors who work from a leader's guide, based on the Rules of the Road. Six hours of classes are held over a three-week period.

The program is designed to provide instruction and confidence for older drivers, many of whom have not taken a road test since their original license was issued.

"More than 15,000 senior citizens have graduated from these driver refresher courses," Howlett said. "The program has proved itself. It is a success—no longer an experiment."

The equity in your house is like money in your pocket.

Equity is the difference between how much your home is worth, and what you owe on it. It's a valuable asset you can use to back a really big loan. For whatever you have in mind.

Real estate values are up, up, up.

So the house you bought just a few years ago probably would sell for a lot more than you paid.

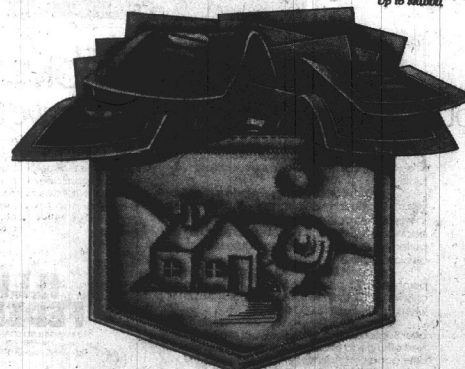

Which means your equity is bigger. And the bigger your equity, the more you can borrow in a large real-estate loan. Right here. Right now. Maybe the money you're looking for is already in the house.

Signs for county road marking plan made here

Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the Madison County Board, was presented Thursday with one of the first road signs being developed as a part of the Madison County Road Reference Program by Ted Raphael of Specialized Services, Inc., Granite City.

The presentation took place at the Specialized Services workshop, 2118 Grand Ave. Also attending were Lester Miller, county superintendent of highways; Dave Dietzel, assistant highway superintendent; Sheriff John Maeras and officials of the Specialized Services organization.

In addition to preparation of the signs which will be erected throughout the county by the highway department, the county has completed preparation of a Madison County Township Road Reference Guide which contains maps designating locations of all county and township roads with grid coordinates.

The books may be purchased at $2 each from the county highway department office at Edwardsville.

Specialized Services is the county's rehabilitative center for the handicapped and mentally retarded. Hagnauer said that the program, which is designed to improve emergency services to residents of unincorporated Madison County as well as enhance overall traffic safety, is being funded by a grant from the Illinois Department of Transportation and the Madison County Community Development Program.

Lester Miller, county superintendent of highways, noted that Madison County is one of the first counties in Southern Illinois to implement the program which calls for the naming and signing of all rural intersections.

The 12x24 inch green reflective signs being installed identify the road name as well as its grid coordinate location and its distance in kilometers from the southwest corner of the county.

Kilometer distance is included to begin to acquaint Illinois residents with the metric system, officials said.

John Maeras, Madison County sheriff whose department was one of the original promoters of the system, commented that the signs will significantly improve sheriff and other emergency vehicle response time as it enables his deputies to immediately determine the location of any intersection or residence in Madison County.

In praising the work of Specialized Services, Hagnauer noted that Madison County was the first county to adopt the system to contract for the services of the physically and mentally handicapped and that as a result of Madison County's initiative, the Illinois Department of Transportation is now studying the utilization of handicapped workshops for sign making activities throughout the state of Illinois.

Madison County has four major objectives in pursuing the establishment of a rural field reference system, it was explained. The first and overall objective of this transportation safety project is to promote the development of a road identification and accident surveillance program which will reduce traffic accident risks and improve the provision of emergency medical, fire, crime and accident prevention services in Madison County.

The second major objective, it was noted, is the identification and signing of all county and township roads through installation of a field reference marker system in accordance with the guidelines of the Illinois Department of Transportation in order to facilitate the locating, reporting, analysis, and monitoring of accident sites and improve sheriff and other emergency vehicle response time.

The third objective is the assignment of rural residence numbers in conjunction with the field reference marker system and the promotion of a visible display of these numbers by residents affected in order to improve emergency vehicle response time called to rural locations.

The fourth objective is to promote the development of a grid coordinate identification system in the state of Illinois and simultaneously, initiate a familiar with and acceptance of the metric system as a standard system of measurement.

The second problem area relates to the problem of establishing a reliable system to reduce traffic accidents. Significant pieces of information on the specific causes of accidents may be gained from an accident reporting system which visually and statistically identifies high accident locations.

Currently, it was said, the sheriff's deputies are able to identify accident sites only by road name or area vicinity. Thus, three accidents on Fosterburg Road may all have occurred at the same spot or three different spots, and subsequent efforts to determine what, if any, corrective measure may be taken to reduce future accidents, signing, lighting, road maintenance or even maintenance of a visual pin map is impossible.

Without such follow-up, however, no comprehensive traffic safety program can be effected in Madison County, it was explained.

GLENN T. WILSON

NO EASY ANSWERS

I'm Glenn Wilson, I'm a Business professor at SIU Edwardsville, and I'm running for the State Senate against incumbent Democrat Sam Vadalabene. There are three main issues: taxes and spending; crime; and honesty versus bribery in state government.

We can no longer afford legislators like Vadalabene. Retention and inflation have hurt the state budget, and there will be little extra money next year even for essential expenses. The only place in the budget where I would advocate more spending, other than just keeping up with inflation, is in the 1% point-to-state prisons, so we can keep more criminals in jail for longer terms. We definitely cannot afford things like the proposed $15 million Expo Center.

I strongly oppose higher taxes. My opponent claims to oppose tax hikes, too, but he and the Democratic majority voted for $461 million more in total than the Governor asked for. He also voted for other spending bills that did not pass, and introduced many bills helping special interests that gave him campaign contributions.

I am adamantly opposed to raising truck weight limits. Extra-heavy trucks would tear up the roads much faster, and cause worse accidents.

I am strongly opposed to bribery, and support the Political Honesty Amendments. My opponent, Vadalabene, was one of 26 state senators named in a bribery trial for receiving cash from the concrete-mix industry after voting for a bill to raise truck weight limits. He admits he took $200 in cash, but says it was a campaign contribution, and says he would've voted for the bill anyway.

It's time for a change. I'd be glad to answer your questions about other issues if you phone me at 656-1691.

P.S. I also strongly recommend Everett Steele for State Representative. He has supported political honesty, fire protection for unincorporated areas, and responsible state spending; and has worked hard helping constituents. This ad is paid for by the Wilson Senate Fund. It cost $63.00.

Workshop here on bus, rail services Nov. 10

Ten community workshops to give area residents an opportunity to contribute ideas for the improvement of transit service in metropolitan St. Louis are scheduled throughout the week of Nov. 8, including Nov. 10 in Granite City.

Jim Nations, chairman of the East-West Gateway Coordinating Council's Transit Action Committee, said the program, a $480,000 federally funded study, is intended to result in development of transit improvements to provide better services to residents of the region.

During the workshops, results of telephone and personal surveys which have been conducted to determine transit needs in the region will be presented.

Gateway staff members and consultants will explain suggested alternative systems, such as expanded bus services; commuter, light and rapid rail; and other transit possibilities which could be considered for the region.

People attending the workshops will have an opportunity to participate in small group discussions and to offer their ideas on what they believe are the region's most pressing transit problems and needs, to comment on the suggested alternative transit improvements presented, and to make their own recommendations.

"Since it is the people who will benefit from any changes and improvements in mass transit, and because the end result of this program will be to submit plans that will make services more reliable and convenient, we are looking to the residents of the region to participate in the program," Nations said.

These community workshops are an opportunity to make our needs and desires known.

The November workshops will be the first of three "milestone" periods in the mass transit program.

The second milestone will come in late winter, when another series of community workshops will review utilization of the result of the first workshops and thereults of a detailed analysis of possible transit improvements.

The third series of workshops will be held in late spring for presentation and discussion of a 1985 mass transit plan for the region.

The final report on the recommended plan, to be completed after the spring workshops, will provide overall guidelines for implementing and financing the recommended system.

Dates and places for the November workshops, which all

SCHERMER'S FEATURE HEARTLAND NATURELE BEEF

Just What Is Heartland Naturele Beef?

HEARTLAND NATURELE BEEF is sold exclusively at Schermers Brothers. This beef is the product of young meat type animals raised in the "heartland" of America. It is called "NATURELE" beef because it is raised on natural forage. It is not "force-fed" with vitamins, chemicals, or sophisticated feeds containing so called "supplements." It is tender and lean. Since it was "grown" naturally, as nature intended it, you find a minimum of fat not only in the meat itself (sometimes referred to as "marbling") but on the outside or "cover" as it is referred to, you find just enough fat for cooking purposes.

In addition, HEARTLAND NATURELE BEEF tastes good. You get the real natural beef flavor. Since this beef is raised on natural feed, you don't have to worry about strange tastes caused by unnatural food supplements.

The third generation will operate the Schermer Market's new Pontoon Beach store at Gaslight Plaza off Pontoon Road, it was announced today. Ribbon-cutting ceremonies are planned for 8:15 a.m. tomorrow, with the opening immediately following.

The 15,000-square-foot supermarket approximately matches the store at 12th Street and Madison Avenue, Madison, in size and arrangement of food displays.

All the features of the Madison store also will be offered at Pontoon Beach. Top Value stamps, gifts, ethnic specialty foods and a garden shop.

Avery Schermer is president and Leo Schermer is vice-president and secretary.

Homemakers District Meeting

Madison County Homemakers Extension will hold a District meeting at Condit Jr. High School cafeteria on Tuesday evening, Nov. 2.

Registration will be at 7 p.m. and the meeting will follow promptly at 7:30 p.m.

The program will be on "Self-protection for Women" and will be presented by a representative from the Madison County Sheriff's Department, an Assistant State's attorney, and representatives from Granite City, Madison and Venice Police Departments.

A "Country Store" will be a feature of the evening. Members are to bring "white elephant" gifts. Guests are welcome.

Granite City Unit members are invited to a Craft Day on Thursday, Nov. 4 at the home of Mrs. Mary Zikowich, 15 Devon Hill Lane, beginning at 10 a.m. Each is to bring a sack lunch. Mrs. Altha Taylor and Mrs. Helen Parks will demonstrate crocheted place mats, egg carton and wrapping paper necklaces, Christmas wall hangings, and pine-cone decorating, it was announced.

Colonial couple, clowns top winners in parade

A Colonial couple, a witch and a trio of colorful clowns captured top spots in the annual Halloween parade held Saturday night in Downtown Granite City.

About 150 paraders took part in the march, more than was expected due to Saturday's inclement weather, according to Walter Anders, parade chairman.

The event is sponsored each Halloween by Granite City Moose Lodge 272, assisted by Women of the Moose Chapter 247.

Most original costume winners were David and Sheila Noel, who appeared as Ben Franklin and Betsy Ross. The children pulled a Bicentennial wagon containing a facsimile of the Liberty Bell.

Runnersup in the most original category were Norine Noel, second place, and Shelley Senecyn, third.

Three gaily attired clowns won the judges' approval and the first award in the best dressed division. They were Diane, Dayle and Dawn Kynion. Second place in the same category was won by Donetta and Jeanetta Teachnor and third place went to Jenny Harshany.

Chosen for the top prize in the most comical category was Theresa Pates, who was garbed as a big headed witch with a long nose.

Anny Oliver was runnerup and Angie Williams received the third place award.

Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler presented the winners on the steps of the City Hall. Many consolation prizes were distributed to other children making up the parade.

The youthful paraders were escorted by the Rolling Nobles of Aina Shrine Temple.

Youth suffers shotgun wound

Daniel B. Shemwell, 18, of Rural Route Two, Box 794, Old Alton Road, suffered a gunshot wound from a 20-gauge shotgun in his bedroom at 3:10 p.m. Saturday.

His mother said Shemwell was in his room when she heard a gun discharge and when she attempted to enter the room she found the door was locked.

She called to her son, who asked her to help him. She was calling an ambulance when Shemwell unlocked and opened his door before collapsing in the doorway.

A registered nurse living nearby was called and applied a bandage to the wound while waiting for an ambulance to arrive.

Shemwell said the wound was accidental and the gun discharged while he was examining it.

He suffered muscle and tissue damage to the front of his left hip, but had no broken bones. He was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital and underwent surgery at 6 p.m. Saturday.

Madison County sheriff's deputies said they have been unable to locate the shotgun and noted Shemwell had no powder burns on his clothing. The shooting is under investigation.

Girl struck and assaulted

A 16-year-old Kirkpatrick Homes girl told police at 1:40 a.m. Friday that a man armed with a gun struck her several times and raped her in a car in Madison.

The girl said she was visiting at a Collinsville mobile home park when a young woman and two young men she knew offered her a ride.

She said they went to a tavern in Alton where they all drank and then drove to a location in front of a home in Madison. She did not know specifically where the house was, she said. A young man and the young woman went into the home while the victim remained in the car, she related.

The young man then threatened her, pointed a gun at her and raped her, she said. He also struck her head with the gun and later, after the other two returned to the car, the assailant struck her with his fist, she said.

The three drove to Popes Avenue, where the victim said she jumped from the car and ran to Kirkpatrick Homes.

The girl was given hospital treatment. She had a cut on the ## World Community Day set

World Community Day, sponsored by the Quad City Church Women United, will be held at 7:30 p.m. Thursday, Nov. 4 at St. Margaret Mary Church, 1900 St. Clair Ave., according to Mrs. Sharon Rush, program chairman.

"I Am the Way, the Truth and the Light" will be this year's theme.

During the service, a "Sole for Souls" offering will be accepted, Mrs. Rush said. Child care services will be provided, and coffee and dessert will be served following the program, she added.

Hooks new Rotary member

J. Richard Hooks, counselor at the Madison Coordinated Youth Services office, was installed as a member of the Madison-Venice Rotary Club at the group's Wednesday noon meeting held in the Madison Recreation Center.

Rotarian Jack Friedman served as the installing officer and explained the aims and purposes of Rotary International.

Hooks, 24, will receive his Master's degree in Guidance this spring at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Hooks is an active worker in the United Way drive and is adviser to Explorer Post 10-4.

The Rev. Walter Walters, pastor of the Bethel AME Church in Venice, is scheduled to be installed by Friedman at the next meeting.

Former Rotarian Secretary Fred Schmidt was recognized for his continued active support of M-V Rotary activities.

A standing ovation was given Rotarians Ray Edwards and Madison Mayor Mike Sasyk for launching the new "Alpine Look" in Madison, Edwards, a partner in Sterling TV, is the first of several Madison merchants that are having their storefronts redecorated in an Alpine theme to make shopping more attractive in the city. The project has been supported by Madison Mayor Sasyk.

W. F. "Mick" Strange, club president, reminded the members to finish their United Way calls within the week.

Strange also pointed out that the Granite City Rotary Club and the M-V Club are promoting the month of November as "Crime Blocker" month.

November, according to FBI statistics, is the highest month for house burglaries. The Crime Blocker program is an attempt to get citizens aware of what to look for and how to report possible crimes in their respective neighborhoods.

It was pointed out that four members of Explorers Post 10-4 who recently underwent the Crime Blocker training, were responsible for stopping a burglary and the arrest of two suspects.

News notes

SIU trustees' choice of a new SIUE president is to be announced at the November or December board meeting. Discussions were held last week with the three finalists from an original field of 223.

Although swine flu shots are being given in St. Louis and many parts of the nation, the Madison County starting date remains Nov. 5.

Rayon acetate blouses should not be soiled by women receiving flu shots; acetone, a sterilizing agent used to swab arms, is harmless to the skin and most fabrics, but it dissolves acetate rayon.

Donald Glickman will replace Frank Matzke as executive director of the Illinois Capital Development Board, which oversees all state construction other than roads and bridges.

Starting today the benefit checks arriving for 1,200,000 veterans attending school under the GI Bill will be eight per cent higher.

Unemployment in this metropolitan area is estimated at 6.9 per cent for September, an increase from the August figure of 6.6 per cent. The government index on future economic growth dropped seven-tenths of a per cent in September.

14-10 South football victory ends North's 1976 playoff hopes

By KEN THOMPSON
Press-Record Staff Writer

GCHS South's defense provided opportunities for Junior Cliff Moran to score twice Friday night at Granite City Stadium, giving the Warriors a 14-10 win over cross-town rival GCHS North. It marked South's first victory over North's Steelers in the three varsity grid clashes.

Coach Stan Wogel's South team evened its record at 4-4. For the Steelers of Coach Tom Wynne, the loss meant advancing no farther this season in competition than one more game. A win Friday over South coupled with a win or a tie this week over Mattson could have sent North into the Class 4A state playoffs. North is now 6-2.

Quarter scores were North leads of 7-0, 10-7 and 10-7. The Steelers dominated everything in the game but the scoreboard, 10-3 in first downs, 145-109 yards rushing, 70-0 yards passing and 12 fumbles lost.

North took the game-opening kickoff, running it out 16 yards to its 32 from where quarterback Greg Corey regained a 48-yard touch-down drive on carries by Fred Clay and Mike Sherman. Clay running across from the three with 5:15 left in the first period. Corey's kick put North on top 7-0.

Clay gained 27 yards rushing during that TD drive. The senior runner totaled 79 yards for the game.

In South's first possession of the game, Mike Forshee took the ensuing kickoff at his 25 and returned the ball to the 34, from where the Warriors in two plays gained five yards.

A third down pass attempt by Quarterback Keith Champion was thwarted by Steeler Lee Pelek at North's 45. It was Pelek's seventh interception of the season.

A pass to Sherman netted no gain, but a 15-yard penalty against South moved the line of scrimmage to South's 40.

Sherman picked up four yards and Clay one on carries before Warrior Moran stepped in front of an intended receiver to grab a Corey aerial at South's 25 and run it back to his 44 with 40 seconds left in the quarter.

Jay Heubner carried to the 47 before the two teams exchanged ends of the field.

Moran moved the ball into Steeler territory at the 49 and, on third down, Champion broke down by Pelek. Moran gained two yards, and Heubner two before Moran provided a tied game on a two-yard TD run with 9:56 left in the half. Tim Kirksey's kick found its mark.

North moved into South's half of the field three plays after taking South's kick.

But a fumble on the snap at South's 41 gave the Warriors possession. The Steelers received renewed hope two plays later, however, when Pelek fell on a South fumble at the Warrior 22.

Following a five-yard gain by Clay and an incomplete pass, Corey attempted to break the deadlock with a 33-yard field goal. It failed with 4:43 left in half, giving South the ball at the 20.

Two plays later, a Warrior fumble recovered by North at the 19 resulted in the halftime score of 10-7 on a 35-yard Corey kick through the uprights with 2:45 remaining.

Corey attempted to increase the lead with 7:38 left in the third period on a 35-yard field goal try that failed following a drive from North's 44.

Minutes later in that quarter, North was knocking on the TD door after a Warrior fourth-down punt traveled only 36 yards. Pelek took it and ran it back to South's 42.

Joe O'Gara ran to the 36 and Clay carried to the 28 for a first down.

But South's defense rose to the occasion. Mike Clark breaking up a pass at the 15. After Corey ran for two yards, Tim Anderson tipped a pass away at the goal line, forcing a fourth down situation.

Deciding to go for it, with fourth-and-eight on the 29, North moved only four yards on a pass reception by Jim Simpson and South took over at its own 24.

Four plays later, the Warriors kicked it away to the Steeler 45. Two straight losses on carries by Clay and Pelek forced Corey to take to the air again, with a pass intended for Clay being hauled in instead by South's Champion at the Steeler 47.

A 15-yard penalty against North put the ball at the 32 with five seconds left in the third quarter. Heubner carried to the 29 as the period ended.

Moran got the nod on the first play from scrimmage to start the final period. Taking a handoff from Champion, he broke through the center of North's line and then cut to his right to ramble 29 yards to paydirt with 11:52 left to play.

Kirksey's kick again found its mark for a 14-10 South lead, ending the scoring.

The Steelers gained large chunks of ground after that but were thwarted by penalties.

With 3:16 left and with North controlling the ball at the Steeler 45, Warrior Mike Clark intercepted a Steeler aerial and ran to North's 16 before being tackled.

A 15-yard penalty against South brought the action out to the 31, from where South proceeded to use up the clock with short ground gains on carries by Heubner and Moran to North's 16.

A penalty against the Steelers put the ball half the distance to the goal at the defense. Champion took the snap from center and fell on the ball as Warrior fans counted off the remaining seconds on the clock before swarming onto the field to praise their team.

Moran led South's running game with 51 yards rushing on 21 carries, and Clay rushed for 79 yards on 27 attempts for North. Pelek caught two Corey aeriels for 33 yards.

An estimated 600 athletes are to attend the event, at which time 167 trophies will be presented in addition to an annual appreciation award and eight special service awards.

Sports to be recognized are baseball, basketball, girls' and boys' tennis, men's and women's softball and flag football.

Gary Bender, a CBS-TV sports announcer, will serve as master-of-ceremonies.

South overcomes Roxana; GC North is foe Thursday

Coach Dorothy Mitchell's GCHS South girls' field hockey squad will join three other area schools in competition this week for sectional honors at the Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville field on Bluff Road. South advanced to sectional play with a 1-0 win Friday over Roxana here.

Mascoutah beat Wood River 2-0 in a sub-sectional game Friday and will meet host Edwardsville at 3:30 p.m. Thursday at the University, with victors of both contests meeting at 3:30 p.m. Friday for sectional honors.

Sectional winners will compete Nov. 11, 12 and 13 in state finals at New Trier East High School in Winnetka.

South's Ruth Geggus provided the winning goal in the second half of play, and Coach Mitchell described the win as "a combined team effort."

South crushes Springfield North kickers top Gibault

GCHS South and GCHS North lived up to their top seedings going into opening round sectional competition Thursday, both winning to advance into quarterfinal games.

Top-seeded South won at Springfield Southeast 19-1 and second-seeded North defeated Gibault at Waterloo, 2-1.

The Warriors went on top 4-0 at the end of the first quarter and led 6-0 at halftime. South scored four times in the third period for a 10-1 lead entering the final period.

Mike Austin, assisted by Fred Schuler, scored first with 8:16 left in the initial quarter, followed by two goals by David Goldschmidt with 7:50 and then 4:49 of the opening period remaining. Fred Schuler made the score 4-0 with 2:57 left.

With 12:53 remaining before halftime, David Goldschmidt tallied his 29th goal of the season followed by Mark Spoford putting the ball into the net with 6:41 left.

Southeast scored on a penalty kick by Bruce Turner with 14 minutes to go in the third period, after two Warrior goals by Rick Fernandez with 11:46 and 11:40 left, combined with goals by Mark Goldschmidt (10:59 left) and Fred Schuler (10:30 left).

Mark Goldschmidt added to the score with 14:56 left in the final period. Schuler scored with 12:56 left and John Prazma scored unassisted with 4:57 remaining.

The Warriors dominated with 38 shots-on-goal to Springfield's three and 10 corner kicks to none. Warrior Barry Briggs stopped two enemy shots from scoring. Fouls were even at 15 each.

Steeler Marty Dooley provided both of GCHS North's goals at Gibault.

Bob Baley chased a loose ball from midfield to just in front of Gibault's goal before passing it to Dooley for a goal with 11 minutes left in the first quarter.

Steeler mentor Robert Kehoe noted that the North player's second goal came accidentally, "but it was welcome since it eventually provided the winning margin and prevented an overtime game."

Steve Seles was set to execute a free kick 35 yards from Waterloo's goal. Dooley ran behind the line of defenders just as Seles powerkicked the ball. The ball struck Dooley on his foot and deflected into the net with one minute left in the third quarter.

Steeler Goalkeeper Mike Hill prevented one of Gibault's two shots-on-goal from scoring, and the opposing goalie stopped four of North's seven scoring attempts.

The hosts held the edge on cornerkicks, 3-2. Fouls were even at 16 each.

Over first-round contest scores were: East St. Louis Assumption 2-0 over Springfield High, Cahokia 3-2 over St. Paul of Highland, Quincy Notre Dame 3-0 over Edwardsville, Springfield Lanphier 4-3 over Jacksonville, Alton 2-1 over Waterloo High and Collinsville 4-0 over Quincy High.

Two injured as car hits light base

Two persons were injured when their auto, allegedly being chased by police at about 70 miles per hour, struck the concrete base to the railroad crossing lights near West 20th Street and Missouri Avenue at 1:30 a.m. Friday.

The driver, William Krug, 20, of 704 Twenty-ninth Place, was charged with violating two stop signs, fleeing police, reckless driving and speeding at 70 mph in a 30 mph zone.

A police officer said the auto went through the stop sign at West 22nd Street and Missouri Avenue and was chased through West 20th Street and Missouri Avenue before going out of control and striking the base of the crossing gate.

Krug and a passenger in the car, Miss Susan Meyerhoff, 18, of the same block, were taken by ambulance to St. Elizabeth Hospital where both were admitted.

Coach Nick Jakich's Trojans took the ensuing kickoff at their 45-yard line and advanced 15 yards in the air and Madison 56 yards on passes.

Hipsas led the Knight rushing attack with 18 carries for 184 yards and five TDs.

Heard carried 10 times for Madison and gained 56 yards.

Police said the incident took place at the North End Liquors Co., 401 Weaver St., Venice.

Police, responding to an anonymous call, met Williams coming out of the building who reportedly told them he had just been shot in the leg.

Final appeal (Continued from Page 1)

the polls and they figure the Democrats are asleep. But I believe the Democrats are awake and fighting harder than ever before.

"Early Wednesday morning we'll tell them what they can do with these polls when I am the governor and Jimmy Carter is the President," Howlett said.

After a loud round of applause, Howlett said, "Thompson is going to be the Tom Dewey of 1976, and the crowd again reacted with wild enthusiasm. He referred to President Harry Truman's upset win over Dewey in 1948.

"The gentleman I'm running against, he's an actor. In Chicago, he wears a tie and Downstate he wants you to believe he's just a country boy. He's trying to be something he isn't and the people Downstate resent it," Howlett declared.

"My mother told me to always be yourself and you will be 10 times better than the guy you're trying to be. I am what I am, and I say the same things and dress the same way in Chicago as I do Downstate," Howlett said.

"My opponent has never once said a thing against my record of 16 years in state office. There is an important difference between us. He is a Republican, but until recently not an active one, and I am a Democrat.

"He didn't go to the Republican convention; he didn't make a statement on Ford or Reagan.

"He already believes the polls and now is talking about becoming President and he isn't even going to get elected governor."

"The Democratic party has no fear of the American voter. They know the Democrats are for all the people, and Tuesday the people are going to elect Democrats."

"I'll tell you one thing. When I'm elected governor, we're going to have beer and hot dogs on the 'mainstream' law on Governor's Day."

Chairman Hagnauer then called on all to redouble their efforts and turn out a large Democratic vote on Tuesday.

An apparently enthusiastic Gov. Walker had led off the speechmaking Saturday afternoon, greeting those who had braved the cold and wet weather for the political rally.

Gov. Walker, with his arms waving, said, "It's great to be back in Madison County and Granite City and see all my old friends."

"After the primary, it would have been easy for me to go home and relax for the rest of the year as governor. But I am not that kind of person, and I am not that kind of Democrat." He lost to Howlett by a substantial margin in March 1975's primary.

"I have a simple message for those of you who are still on the fence. Get off now, and get your friends off the fence, and go to the polls Tuesday and elect Mike Howlett the next governor."

"We also need to elect a national Democratic ticket. Not me, and I mean no one, in Washington has worked harder for our state than Congressman Melvin Price," Walker concluded.

"I know Jimmy Carter. We went to the Naval Academy together and served as governors together."

"Jimmy Carter is a leader in the Roosevelt, Truman and Kennedy tradition and we need to get Carter elected as President," Walker asserted.
